THREE KNOWN TO HAVE PERISHED—SCORE INJURED UNITED STATES SUBMARINE BOAT E-2 IS BLOWN UP

EASTERN FIELD OF WAR RESUMES PROMINENCE AFTER DAYS OF QUIET

Russian Armies Resume Offensive in Bessarabia.

Vienna Reports Austrian Lines Have Withstood Repeated Attacks.

Both Sides Claim to Have Taken Many Prisoners in Campaigns.

By Associated Press.
London, January 15.—The eastern field of war again resumes prominence with the resumption of the offensive by the Russians in Bessarabia.

There has been a cessation of activity in that part of the fighting front for several days.

Vienna now reports, however, that the Austrian lines have again been subjected to determined attacks, but the Russian attempts to break through were repulsed although the attacking forces in great numbers advanced five times to the assault, the Austrian artillery proving deadly in stopping the Russian offensive.

It is claimed by the Austrian War Office that since the inauguration of the winter operations in eastern Galicia and Bessarabia, more than five thousand Russians, including thirty officers, have been taken prisoners. The Russians also have claimed numerous captures and have declared that notable gains of ground have been made during the operations north of Czernowitz.

The Austrians refuse to concede the Russian claims and declare their lines have held firm at all stages.

The Austrians, who at present are the most actively engaged of any of the belligerents are pressing their campaign against Montenegro and announce further advances into the interior of the little kingdom.

The Montenegrins are in retreat and are suffering heavy losses in men and guns, according to Vienna. Germany, in replying to Great Britain in the Baralong case, reiterates the charges made against the British auxiliary cruiser's officers, accused in affidavits of Americans on the steamer Nicosan of having refused quarter to members of a German submarine's crew.

The German government declares unacceptable the British offer to submit the Baralong case to a tribunal comprised of American naval officers. Germany would submit three specific cases of alleged outrages committed by Germans to the same court, Germany declaring that in none of the cases mentioned were German officers trying to destroy helpless persons.

In view of the British declaration to bring the accused officers of the Baralong to trial, Germany, the official note announces, will take matters into her own hands and adopt measures of reprisal corresponding with the provocation.

Deck of Submarine Entirely Blown Out—First Estimates of Horror Give Larger List of Killed.

By Associated Press.
New York, January 15.—The United States Submarine E-2 was today blown up and sunk in the Brooklyn navy yard.

A report from the yard to police headquarters said twenty men had been killed and a number injured.

The submarine was blown apart, it was said, at the navy yard by an internal explosion, the cause of which is not yet known.

New York, January 15.—An explosion aboard the submarine E-2, in dry dock at the New York navy yard, caused the death today of at least three members of the crew and injured a number of others, variously reported at from six to twenty.

One was killed outright and two died later at the naval hospital at the yard.

Six, seriously injured, were taken to the hospital shortly after the explosion occurred at about 1:45 o'clock.

At 3 p. m., others rescued from the interior of the submarine were being brought in.

The explosion was said to be due to hydrogen gas, ignited while the new batteries invented by Thomas A. Edison, were being recharged.

Newspapermen were barred from the navy yard, and authentic details could not be obtained during the first two hours following the explosion.

Some reports have it that ten men were in the submarine at the time and that eight or nine were instantly killed.

The deck of the submarine was entirely blown out, it was reported outside of the yards.

Several officers who attempted to enter the submarine at the head of a rescue party, were driven back by the fumes, and it was reported at 3 p. m. that a number of bodies were still in the interior.

Four of the injured, who were removed to the naval hospital just outside the yard, were thought by surgeons to have little chance of recovery.

They were: L. C. Miles, chief electrician, of Brooklyn; John Holsey, seaman, of Baltimore; Guy Clark Jr., of Frankfort, N. Y., and Raymond Ott, of Middleburg, Md.

Rear Admiral Nathaniel Usher, commandant of the navy yard, was listening to Secretary Daniels' speech on preparedness at the Democratic Club here when he was informed of the explosion.

He went at once to the navy yard and told newspapermen he would make an immediate investigation. An aide of Secretary Daniels accompanied Admiral Usher.

PRINCE IS SUMMONED

By Associated Press.
London, January 15.—Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of Emperor William, has been summoned to Berlin, according to a Central News dispatch.

The dispatch also says Emperor William's birthday festivities for January 27 have been cancelled.

It is inferred that Prince Henry has been called to Berlin on account of the emperor's illness.

EIGHTH REGIMENT LEAVES YOUNGSTOWN

Columbus, January 15.—The Eighth Regiment, Ohio National Guards, was ordered withdrawn from the Youngstown strike district at noon today by Adjutant General Hough, after a consultation with Governor Willis.

The troops will leave this afternoon and will be at their homes this evening.

The estimated cost to the state of retaining the troops eight days on strike duty is $65,000.

WOMAN SHOTS R. R. ENGINEER

Cleveland, O., January 15.—James McCarthy, 42, a railroad engineer, was shot and killed this afternoon at his home.

Police have arrested a woman who, they say, claims she is McCarthy's wife and that she was deserted with a child by McCarthy in Nashville, Tenn., a year ago.

SON-IN-LAW OF GEN. HUERTA INDICTED

By Associated Press.
El Paso, Texas, January 15.—Luis Fuentes, son-in-law of the late General Huerta, and Aristarco Carrascosa, who were indicted recently at San Antonio as participants in the alleged Huerta conspiracy to start a new revolt in Mexico, were taken into custody today by agents of the United States Department of Justice.

The first man gave bond, but the other remained in jail.

ON SLAYER'S TRAIL

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, O., January 15.—The slayer of 19-year-old Dolores Evans, also known as Elizabeth Myers, is aboard a train bound for Los Angeles, California, the police believe. They say they hope to arrest the man while the train is crossing Kansas today.

By Associated Press.

LANSING PROMISES TO INFORM

By Associated Press.
Washington, January 15.—On the request of Senator Stone, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Secretary Lansing agreed to keep the Senate constantly and promptly informed regarding Mexican developments, and also to hasten the preparation of information regarding the Carranza government in answer to Senator Fall's resolution.

Senator Stone visited Secretary Lansing and told him the Foreign Relations Committee, particularly, was very desirous of keeping in close touch with Mexican developments. He called attention to criticism lately made in the Senate intimating that Mexican affairs had been clothed with much secrecy.

The New Chalmers Six at $1050

The Chalmers Motor Co.

this week enters the low-priced car field with its new little Six, known as Model 6-30, as the instrument. It is a vehicle with a 3 1/4 by 4 1/2 six-cylinder motor and a wheel-base of 115 inches, and it is priced at $1050. In thus marking a new epoch in Chalmers' history the concern is undoubtedly amply able to carry out its manufacturing intentions to the letter. The factory is a 25-acre institution with most modern buildings and equipment, and its action in bringing out a car at the price is but another indication of the trend of the times.

CARRANZA MUST PUNISH BANDITS

Wilson Waiting For Him to Show His Hand.

MUST CAPTURE MURDERERS

No Departure From Administration's Policy of Watchful Waiting Pending Demonstration of Mexican Ruler's Ability to Protect Lives of Foreigners—Vigorous Action in Case of Slain Americans Promised.

Washington, Jan. 15.—General Carranza is to be given full opportunity to run down and punish the Mexican bandits responsible for the massacre of seventeen Americans at Santa Ysabel last Monday. This is the decision of President Wilson and his advisers.

Pending a demonstration in this way of Carranza's ability to protect the lives of foreigners in Mexico there will be no departure from the administration's policy of "watchful waiting." A decision to this effect was reached at the cabinet meeting.

General Carranza has promised vigorous action. In a telegram to Arredondo, Mexican designate here, the first chief says: "The murderous attack on the passenger train near Chihuahua was made by the only remaining band of outlaws in that region.
This band is being actively pursued in order to insure its capture, whereupon condign punishment which their crime deserves will be meted out to every guilty participant. The Constitutionalist government troops have been ordered to establish strong patrols from end to end of the railway line in order to forfend against similar outrages."

While the president and his advisers are insisting as strongly as ever on a continuance of "watchful waiting," sentiment in congress in opposition to the policy and in favor of vigorous action is growing. Another resolution calling for intervention was introduced, and the sharpest attacks that have yet been made upon the president's course toward Mexico were heard in the senate.

Some of the president's supporters in congress are showing signs of wavering. Speaker Clark made this statement in regard to Mexico: "There is nothing to say about the Mexican situation except that the United States ought to compel the people down there to respect American rights as to persons and property."

SENATE ADJOURNS

Washington, Jan. 15.—The senate adjourned until Monday, the purpose being to try to put a stop to the daily debate on Mexican affairs. Senator Fall of New Mexico, Republican, said in the senate that when records in the state department were produced they would show that the order issued to the United States marines who en-

CARRANZISTAS MAKE CLAIMS

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 15.—Following rioting in El Paso between Americans and Mexicans, started by an altercation between two soldiers of the United States army and two Mexicans, Mayor Lea ordered that the proposed mass meeting of protest against the slaughter of Americans by Mexicans be indefinitely postponed. The meeting was being agitated by George Curry, former governor of New Mexico, and others.

The mayor and city commissioners remain at their offices, ready at a moment's notice to call officially upon General Pershing to take charge of the situation with the 5,000 American troops stationed here, but there is no indication of any trouble.

Carranza officials continue to assert that General Jose Rodriguez, former Villa leader, has been captured near Madera, Chihuahua, and added that he had been executed, as will be the fate of all other bandits captured, and that his body is being brought to Juarez on a special train that Americans may satisfy themselves of his death. Carlo Almeria, another leader, is said to have been executed with Rodriguez.

It is established that Rodriguez did not command the band that slew the sixteen Americans west of Chihuahua, since he could not possibly have returned from Santa Ysabel to Madera between Tuesday and Thursday. The band that committed the slaughter may have been of his command, but Rodriguez was not there personally.

Every effort of Americans is being bent upon getting all their countrymen out of Mexico, and special trains are being arranged for. Carranza officials are offering military escorts sufficient to protect the trains.

200,000 MEN REQUIRED TO WHIP MEXICO

Washington, Jan. 15.—In spite of the chaotic changes Mexico has undergone since the overthrow of the Diaz regime, military experts of the United States who are now studying the problem, insist that the pacification of the country could not be accomplished satisfactorily with less than 200,000 men. Although warfare has impoverished the southern republic, it has brought to the people certain military advantages which can be obtained only through experience. The men who have been engaged in revolutionary activity are veterans in their peculiar kind of warfare. They have adopted themselves to the rigors of the field. For this reason American army officers who have come in contact with them on the border are of the opinion that the Mexican soldier of today is much more formidable as a fighting man than he was five years ago or before the reign of chaos
in that country began.

Antagonists.

How many who have deemed themselves antagonists will smile hereafter when they look back upon the world's wide harvest field and perceive that in unconscious brotherhood they were helping to land the selfsame sheaf!

ARMY IS FLEEING

Montenegrin Situation Is a Desperate One.

ENEMY MOVES SOUTHWARD

Little Nation Now Encompassed On All Sides Except In the South,
Where the Fleeing Troops Will Be Confronted by Hostile Albanian Tribesmen—Turks Capture Important Persian City.

London, Jan. 15.—With Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, in their hands, the Austrians are continuing their march southwestward toward the fortified port of Antavari, driving before them a force of the soldiers of King Nicholas.

Montenegro is now encompassed on all sides, except in the south, by the invaders, and across the southern border in Albania, should the Montenegrins be driven there, they will face foes in the Albanian tribesmen. With the fall of their capital and with no
let-up apparent in the Austrian pressure against them, the situation of the Montenegrins is a critical one.

Kermansha, the so called capital of Persia, famous for its rugs and carpets and surrounded by fertile wheat country, has been entered by the Ottoman forces, who were warmly received by the populace.

Little fighting is going on along the various fronts, except by means of the big guns and sniping operations.
The entente fleet again has bombarded Turkish positions on the evacuated Gallipoli peninsula.

Since the blowing up of the railroad bridges near the Greek frontier by the engineers of the entente allies
there have been no developments tending to show a change in the situation there. Nothing has come through concerning the promised attack by the Teutonic allies along the line leading to the base of the entente allies at Salonica, but advices from the Macedonian seaport are that the British and French continue to land reinforcements there in large numbers. It is hoped by them to make Salonica a second Ypres in strength of resisting ability.

MINERS DESIRE 10 PER CENT LIFT

Columbus, Jan. 15.—The report of calls for an advance of 10 per cent on ficient work and yardage; that the coal be weighed before it is screened and paid for on the mine run basis;

and a uniform outside and inside day wage scale with the same relative advance in the rate. The demands also provide that no scale shall be agreed to that takes away the right of state officers to call a strike after they have investigated the grievances and disagreed with the company.

The present wage contract expires tract to begin April 1 will not be presented to the operators until after the gins next Tuesday.

The El Paso Disturbances

The rioting in El Paso, Texas, assumed such violence and was so wide spread on Thursday night that it became necessary for the civil authorities to call a detachment of federal troops from Fort Bliss to work side by side with the police in quelling the disturbances.

Many American residents of the border city had become so enraged at the villianous treatment accorded residents of the United States by Mexicans across the Rio Grande that self control was no longer possible and attacks on Mexicans in the poorer sections of the city were numerous and violent in the extreme.

Order was restored not without considerable difficulty and the infliction of bodily injury on some of the rioters.

The most disturbing reports, however, from the trouble zone along the border are that miners and cattlemen are banding together for the avowed purpose of conducting an expedition into Mexico to avenge the outrages perpetrated by Mexicans.

It is announced that more than fifty thousand requests have been sent broadcast throughout the United States for recruits.

It is sincerely hoped by the more sober minded Americans both on the border and in the interior that the proposal will be abandoned or checkmated by the authorities before any overt act, which might be construed as hostile by the Carranza government, is committed.

The residents of the border regions have suffered much at the hands of Mexicans—both authorities and bandits—and they are to be, in a measure, forgiven for their lapses of self control.

Public men, however, should see to it that no intemperate speeches tending to intensify the bitter feeling now existing, are indulged in. The duty of the public official is to use every endeavor to calm the feeling of hostility rather than to encourage those who hold that feeling to the point where it breaks the bonds of self control.

What of the War This Year?

With the year 1916 now scarcely two weeks old, it is perhaps a little early to make predictions as to the result of this year's warfare in Europe. Especially is that true if the predictions are based on the results accomplished and the failures encountered by the belligerents in the campaign of this year.

The European war has exhibited a decided tendency to produce results contrary to the advance predictions of experts any way. In that it does not differ greatly from most of the wars which have gone before.

The year 1914, the first of the war, when all critics and experts were predicting disaster to the allied armies even to the extreme of prophecying the capture of Paris, victory, slight it is true, nevertheless decisive, perched on the banner of the allies and the prepared German armies were turned back after they had driven their way through all opposition to the very gates of Paris.

Encouraged by the gallant opposition of the Belgians, in the face of tremendous odds, the allied forces compelled the Germanic allies to retreat almost to the borders of France.

The year 1915 began with the experts predicting that the entente powers would enjoy marked successes because the central powers had become exhausted with the offensive fighting of the year before and France, England and Russia were at last ready.

The disaster to the Russian troops in East Prussia and Galicia, the reverses suffered by the allies in the Balkans, the gigantic failure at the Dardanelles while France and England failed to make advance in the west contradicted the experts.

Turn about is the rule, fortune, fate, or whatever other name one may choose to call it, has thus far observed.

Is the coming year to again witness successes of the entente powers? Events of the year past do not seem to justify that prediction, but again the unexpected may happen.

Changing of the School System

Right now the method of conducting public schools, both rural and urban, is coming in for its full share of criticism and suggestion.

The present school system has endured for a long time. Changes have been made and progress has been made by improving the system—extending it along some lines and restricting it in certain other lines, but until recently no revolutionary changes in the system itself have been advocated by any recognized authority on the subject of common schools.

The Gray system, as advocated by Mr. Wirt of the Gary schools is in the forefront of public attention.

Mr. Wirt insists that the public is not receiving enough of benefit from the investment in school properties. The Gary idea would, in short, make the school properties available for the youth all the year round and render them useful for all requirements of the developing youth of the land. For study, for teaching, for play and for work. The ideas advanced are revolutionary and would entail an extra cost of maintainance which would be found quite a difficulty to be surmounted in the smaller cities.

Poetry For Today

THE PESSIMIST BREAKS LOOSE.

There is a land of small delight
Where all we mortals dwell,
Where something pesters day and night
And holidays as well.
Misfortune's ice is spread afar,
Whereon each mortal slips;
And those who dodge the motor car
Appendicitis grips.

While shines the sun man maketh hay,
And sunstroke is his gain.
He saveth for a rainy day;
And lo, it doesn't rain.
The demon corn gnaws at his feet,
Or pain his eye tooth rides,
Or something that he's had to eat
Disturbs his whole insides.

His wife deletes what'er he's earned
And buyeth flats galore,
And, every time his back is turned,
They raise his taxes more.
Almost before he gets to bed
A new day doth commence,
Full oft he'd wish that he were dead
Except for the expense.

Such is the life we mortals live—
A paltry, tiresome task.
All joys are given in a sieve,
Cares in a stoppered flask;
If poor, a man is thought a dunce;
If rich, 'tis called a crime.
Good fortune knocks, 'tis said, but once;

Why Wet Land Is Cold.

C. G. Hopkins, soil expert, says that five times as much heat is required to evaporate water from the surface of a soil as would be needed to raise the temperature of the same amount of water from the freezing to the boiling point, says Farm and Fireside. This explains why wet and poorly drained soils are cold.

The drainage removes the excess of water. Then the heat of the sun is able to make some headway in warming the soil. But if the soil is continually saturated with water the constant evaporation keeps the temperature down in spite of the sun's warmth.

HARTMAN THEATER

Entire Week of January 17th—Matinees Wednesday and Saturday—
"Potash and Perlmutter."

The two partners in the cloak and suit business, "Potash and Perlmutter," which returns to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, for one week, with the usual matinees Wednesday and Saturday, commencing Monday, January 17th, whose adventures in the romantic fields of trade were so closely followed by readers when Montague Glass' short stories dealing with the duo were originally published, have stepped from the pages of a magazine, and are among us.

One's conception of the type of men that Glass set down in writing is not changed when the prototypes of the two business men are seen upon the stage, and it seems like meeting old friends to see Abe and Mawruss walking about in their office selling goods, or engaged in heated squabbles.

They are so very human, are Abe and Mawruss, each with his keen sense for the dollar, but each too, with a kind-heartedness that is willing to make any sacrifice, even with some slight manifestation of regret. But the recriminations are never very serious when they seem most to be, and the human qualities of the two men are recognizable as characteristic of the race.

The selection of material from the Glass stories for the play has been adroit, leaving the Potash and Perlmutter combination as of deepest interest, and accentuating the comedy element in the most admirable way. The incidental story of the Russian refugee whose departure on the advice of Potash nearly precipitates a crash in the house of Potash and Perlmutter, and the sentimental interest of an incidental sort, hold the play together very neatly, and do not interfere with the purpose of the dramatizer to show the partners just as they were created.

"I don't carry the lantern in order to see the road," replied the blind man, "but to keep some fool like you from running against me and breaking my pitcher."

The vanilla bean is the costliest bean in the world. It flourishes in Mexico, chiefly in Papantla and Misantla. It grows wild and is gathered and marketed by the natives. Just as they come from the forests the beans sell at $10 per 1,000. After the beans are dried and cured they are worth from $10 to $11 a pound, according to quality. They are used by druggists and confectioners and are an important article of commerce.

INJUNCTION HALTS THE CITY CONTRACTING FOR LIGHTS

Court Issues Restraining Order When Amended and Supplemental Petition Is Filed.

LEGALITY OF COUNCIL ACTION AGAIN ATTACKED

Petition Alleges That Council "Hedged" Their Action Toward Contracting.

Upon application of R. C. Hunt, as a tax payer of the city of Washington, in an amended and supplemental petition, filed in the common pleas court Friday evening, Judge Carpenter, after hearing argument on the case Saturday morning, overruled a motion to strike from the files the amended supplemental petition, and granted a restraining order preventing the city from entering into a contract for street lighting.

The order of the court did not prevent the filing of and opening of bids for lighting the streets, but restrains the contract letting until further order of the court. A bond of $1,000 was required of the plaintiffs.

The original suit of R. C. Hunt and others against the city was filed September 27, 1915, and attacked the legality of the "pretended" contract entered into between the city and the Washington Gas & Electric Company.

The amended and supplemental petition contains 15 typewritten pages and sets forth that since the original action was filed, council rescinded the alleged letting of contract, and took other steps, which are challenged as illegal, such as passing special assessing ordinances for a proposed "white way" and "pretending" to contract for an engineer at $1200.

Plaintiff charges that the city council hedged about the matter of calling for bids for street lighting, in order to limit the eligibility of bidders, and in a manner favoring the Washington Gas & Electric Co. That a certified check of $7500 was required, and the work to begin within ten days or the sum forfeited; that $1200 of the amount was finally to be retained to pay for the services of an engineer. This, the plaintiff claims, was formulated by H. Whitford Jones.

Plaintiff asked that the city be enjoined from contracting, and that upon final hearing the order be made permanent, and that the proceedings of council be adjudged invalid and set aside.

The plaintiff is represented by John Logan.

Only one bid for street lighting was submitted and opened by the Service-Safety Director at noon Saturday. The bid in question was that of The Washington Gas & Electric Company, which was accompanied by a certified check for $1200 and which covered the street lighting alone. The bid was substantially the same as that of last fall.

CALL ETERNAL FOR DR. CLEMANS

Rev. F. M. Clemans, D. D., who has been in declining health for some time, died at his home on Washington avenue, shortly before midnight, Friday. The funeral services will be conducted at Grace church Sunday, January 16th, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. J. V. Stone will have charge. President Herbert Welch of Ohio Wesleyan University and other ministers are expected to assist. The remains will be interred at Jamestown, Ohio, at 10:30 a. m., Monday. A number of Dr. Clemans' ministerial friends have been notified and some of them will be at the funeral.

The deceased was born near Jamestown, Ohio, June 24, 1835, and at the time of his death was aged 80 years, 6 months and 22 days. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Laura J. Johnson and Mrs. Lottie Grove, both living at Van Wert, and two sons, W. L. Clemans, of Cedarville, and Fred M. Clemans, cashier of the Mechanicsburg bank.

Dr. Clemans was twice married, first to Miss Sarah I. Chaffin and after her death to her cousin, Miss Clara C. Chaffin. To the first union four children were born, the two daughters dying in young girlhood.

For 12 years prior to entering the ministry Dr. Clemans was a school teacher and for five years was superintendent of the Jamestown public schools. He was a great student. He held six honorary degrees from colleges, including Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Laws and Master of Arts. He was a fine Hebrew scholar, and for forty years was a prominent minister of the Cincinnati conference of the M. E. church, having filled a number of important city appointments including Dayton, Middletown and elsewhere.

After retiring from the active ministry Dr. Clemans served for some time as the Cincinnati District Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

About 14 years ago Dr. and Mrs. Clemans located on their farm, three miles west of New Holland, where they lived until building a home in Washington C. H., moving into it the first of last March. Mrs. Clemans dying there September 3, 1915.

MOTION IS MADE FOR A NEW TRIAL

The suit of Minnie Hodson against her father, B. F. Hodson, was up before Judge Newby on the motion for a new trial. This case, it will be remembered, the jury returned a judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $7,500. Miss Hodson accused her father of having struck her in the side with his fist injuring her badly and causing her to suffer a nervous breakdown.

Judge Newby did not decide the motion, but said he was greatly surprised that the jury had returned a verdict for such a large sum. He told the attorneys for the parties that he did not think that it should be necessary to retry the case and advised them to get together and agree upon a settlement. — Hillsboro News-Herald.

RAWEIS MAKE DECIDED HIT

The Raweils, gifted New Zealanders, and Calixto R. Llamas, brilliant Filipino pianist, of Manila, Philippines, entertained and delighted a large audience at Grace church, Friday night, giving one of the most unique and fascinating and thoroughly enjoyable and instructive entertainments ever presented by the Washington Lyceum Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Raweils portrayed, in charming manner, the rise of their people from savagery to civilization, in the course of 60 years time, showing a large amount of handiwork of the islanders, telling of their habits, rendering their love songs, ballads and war songs of years ago, and by their music, songs and pictures showing the great transformation wrought in a remarkable people in a very short time.

The brilliant work of Mr. Llamas, who is substituting for the young Mr. Raweils who is now traveling through the west, drew great outbursts of applause, and the talented young Filipino was pronounced by many to be the best pianist ever appearing on the local lyceum course.

One of his remarkable feats was the faultless playing of Lucia's "Sextette" with the left hand only. His interpretation was almost faultless and nothing, apparently, was too difficult for him to perform on the piano. Following the entertainment scores flocked about the exhibits which were explained by Mr. Raweils. One piece of native cloth shown was more than 80 years old, and still in splendid condition.

The next number of the lyceum course will be the "American Girls," on Saturday night, January 29th.

NEW ASSIGNMENT IN COMMON PLEAS

Wednesday, February 2. — 13741 C. N. McCoy vs. David Morris.

FATHER AND SON ARE BOUND OVER

Benjamin Babbitt and son Wilbur Babbitt, of Wellston, arrested this week for stealing a horse from Milton Hill, of Pickaway county, were held to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each when they faced Justice Lindsay in Circleville Friday.

The two men had been working in the neighborhood of Orient and when they returned to their home are alleged to have taken the horse with them, a thing not new in this part of Ohio.

Daddy Long Legs, February 4th.

MAN WHO SHOT INTRUDER WILL NOT BE ARRESTED

Thomas Chenoweth, the man who shot and fatally wounded George Bowles, colored, when he discovered Bowles in his house about midnight recently, and who shot after the man had refused to leave the premises when ordered to do so, will not be arrested for the shooting, the mere fact that the man shot was a burglar in the act of burglarizing the premises, being sufficient to justify the deed, it is claimed.

The colored intruder, soon after being shot, was given every attention by a physician, but death occurred Wednesday following an operation.

The body of the dead man was taken in charge by relatives from Oxford, and removed to that place for interment.

Mr. Chenoweth is greatly worried over the affair which made it necessary to take the man's life.

Acting under the belief that a man's home is sacred and that he who breaks into the home does so at the risk of his life, the coroner probably will return a verdict of justifiable homicide.

INTEREST INCREASES AT THE TABERNACLE

There was a large crowd at the tabernacle meeting on Sunnyside Friday night, conducted by Evangelist D. B. Willhite and J. W. Troy, musical director. An unusual amount of interest was shown and it was after 10 o'clock when the special prayer service in the annex was concluded.

People were present from various parts of town and many rose for prayers. An earnest appeal was made by Evangelist Willhite for people to start in the new life. Church members from various city churches came forward when asked to come to the front and assist in the special prayer service.

The speaker's subject was "Excuses," and he told about the many sorts of made up excuses that people resort to to win their point.

He declared that "a man can't be a true Christian and lead a double life, and a made-up excuse will not save him when the critical comes. The right kind of religion makes people honest and square.

There will be services at the tabernacle tonight and tomorrow night beginning at 7 o'clock.

It is expected that the Monday Sunday night will bring out a record breaking crowd, and a special program will be provided.

Tonight three evangelists and evangelistic singers will be on the platform and a meeting of deep interest is expected.

"THE MERRY BURLESQUERS" Beauty, song and fun will be the master of the situation at the Empire Theater tonight, when the burlesque revolution "The Merry Burlesquers" will appear, presenting a program full of redeeming features. Opening with the breezy and timely satire, "Going Right Out," "Fun in a Hotel," which serves to introduce the entire company in a rapid round of music and song followed by a splendid olio of high class vaudeville numbers and novelties.

The closing number and particular feature will be the superb musical burlesque "From Broadway to Atlantic City," the biggest thing ever attempted in burlesque and described as a crystal maze of scenic wonders and electrical effects, demonstrating the efforts of a master of stage craft. In point of costuming, etc., it is very elaborate, and to say the twenty singing beauties are a treat to the eye and ear but putting it mildly. There are twelve big song hits while the show is fast, furious and all new.

FOUR FOOTED ELK IS COMING TO THIS CITY

Big Fellow Is Purchased of Cincinnati Zoo and Will Arrive in This City Next Tuesday in Charge of a Keeper—Hide Will Be Mounted.

A genuine Elk is coming to town—a real, live, big as life and twice as handsome, four-footed fellow who tips the scales at 650 pounds.

The coming of the elk to this city is due to a visit made to Cincinnati Friday by Messrs Jess W. Smith and C. A. Gossard, who closed a deal with the Cincinnati Zoo Company, through Supt. Sol Stephen, for a fine specimen of the noble animal.

The elk is past two years old and weighs 650 pounds, and has a splendid spread of antlers.

Messrs Smith and Gossard purchased the animal outright, and he will be shipped to this city next Tuesday in charge of a keeper.

It is planned to have an expert taxidermist mount the fine skin of the big fellow and place it in the Elks' home in this city.

The elk responds to the name of "Bill."

HOME BOY ENTERS IN BIG CONTEST

Little Robert Robinson Baird, known to nearly every man, woman and child in Washington, has entered the big contest now being conducted by The Curtis Publishing Company.

That company is going to give away as rewards to its circulation builders throughout the country the sum of $15000, the size of the reward depending, of course, on the number of subscribers the entrants can turn in to the company at the expiration of the specified period. The publications are the Ladies Home Journal and The Saturday Evening Post and The Country Gentleman.

Little Robert Baird has become quite a familiar figure on the streets of Washington soliciting subscriptions and delivering the several publications. At present he is in South Carolina with his grandmother and in his absence Harold Rodecker is very generously looking after his interests. Those who contemplate subscribing for any one of the publications mentioned can, without cost to themselves, assist him very materially by allowing him to send in their subscriptions.

Little Robert enters the contest with a splendid list of subscribers and his opportunity of securing a substantial portion of the big award are considered by his friends to be excellent.

Certainly the cause is a worthy one and once their attention is directed to it Washington and Fayette county people will be glad to help along.

It should be stated that there are no other contestants in this district.

BARGER TO QUIT OFFICE AND LEAVE CITY TOMORROW

To carry out an understanding the committee appointed to draft charges of immoral conduct against City Solicitor Taylor L. Barger, he will tender his resignation as solicitor of the city and, with his family, depart from the city tomorrow, presumably for the south, and will remain away from the city for an indefinite period.

In case Barger carries out the provisions of the understanding with the committee, Mayor Oster will appoint his successor. Former Solicitor Pope Gregg is favorably mentioned for the office.

REV. HARRY HADLEY CALLED TO ZANESVILLE

It is gratifying news to many Washington friends to learn that Rev. Harry Hadley, rector of Martins Ferry Episcopal church, has received a call to the Episcopal church of Zanesville.

The call is a flattering recognition of Rev. Hadley's ability, this church being one of the leading episcopal churches of the diocese. The call carries with it a largely increased salary over that of the church at Martins Ferry.

Rev. Hadley has not yet accepted the call, owing to his interest in his present charge.

CIRCUIT COURT TO HEAR MOVIE CASE

The question of Sunday moving pictures for Chillicothe went a step nearer to a final decision when the case of the State of Ohio against Manager Clarence Myers of the Majestic theater was heard by the Circuit Court of Appeals Friday morning.

The case was appealed to the Circuit Court by Myers after Judge Goldsberry of the Common Pleas Court recently ruled against Sunday performances. After a decision is handed down by the Circuit Court, the case may be appealed to the Supreme Court for final decision. Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

CANDIDACY OF HERRICK IS FINALLY ANNOUNCED

Would Represent Ohio In the United States Senate.

Cleveland, Jan. 15.—Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio and former ambassador to France, announced his candidacy for the United States senate, subject to the decision of the coming Republican primary. His secretary, H. M. Laundon, gave out this statement:

"Mr. Herrick believes that the next six years will be most important ones in congress, years in which our form of government may be put to a serious test. Mr. Herrick is now dissociated from business and is in a position to give his time to public affairs. He has not felt like forcing his candidacy on the people of the state, consequently he has waited to learn whether there was a real sentiment for his candidacy. The information that has come to him has been such as to lead him to believe that there is a genuine desire on the part of a large number that he become a candidate for the next senate, and he has decided to do so."

For some weeks petitions urging Colonel Herrick to enter the race have been circulated at various points throughout the state and have been numerously signed. He will be opposed at the primary by Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus, who was decided upon as the senatorial candidate at a meeting of the Republican leaders some time ago, and by others.

GREAT OIL MERGER ON

New York, Jan. 15.—Practically all of the details for the formation of a great $150,000,000 oil merger, headed by the Mexican Petroleum company as the center of all the other concerns, have been completed with the exception of the formal signing of the contracts. The merger is one of the largest oil amalgamations which has been put through since the original Standard Oil company, with all its underlying subsidiary concerns, was formed. The success of the merger negotiations is attributed to E. L. Doheny, president of the Mexican Petroleum company. The other big companies which will join in the merger are the Associated Oil company, which is largely controlled by the Southern Pacific railroad, and the Union Oil company.

SHOW ACTIVITIES OF MR. VON PAPEN

London, Jan. 15.—Copies of correspondence seized from Captain Franz Von Papen, recalled German military attaché at Washington, when he reached Falmouth on his way to Germany, have been turned over to the American embassy for transmission to the state department.

The papers show that Captain Von Papen made frequent payments to persons charged with the responsibility for blowing up munition works and bridges in the United States.

The dossier furnished the American embassy discloses, among other things, the following facts:

That Captain Von Papen, through the firm of G. Amsinick & Company of New York, by checks drawn on the Riggs National bank of Washington, paid Werner Horn, alias Van Horne, who, it is said, attempted to blow up the Canadian Pacific bridge at St. Croix, Me., the sum of $700 a few days previous to the commission of the act; that through the same agency he paid Anton Kupferle, the German spy who committed suicide in Brixton prison here, the sum of $100 just prior to Kupferle's embarking for his mission; and that Captain Von Papen kept the German consulate in Seattle regularly fed with large sums from the beginning of February, 1914, until a fortnight prior to the outrage occurring on May 30, when the last payment of $500 was made.

The documentary evidence revealing these facts constitutes an array totaling half a bushel basketful and outrivaling in importance even the famous Archibald correspondence. The letters, bank books and check stubs show conclusively that whenever an outrage had been committed in the United States prior to that time extensive payments were made by Von Papen, through Amsinick & Company and others, to that particular locality. They also show significantly, as in the Horn case, that on the day prior to the payment of $700 Von Papen's special bank account was augmented by $2,000 from the German embassy. They show, too, a number of payments direct from Ambassador Von Bernstorff to Von Papen to what was termed "war intelligence work."

As an example of the size of the captain's financial operations, his bank book shows that in January of 1915 he received approximately $6,400 and paid out $5,000.

OUTDOOR CHILDREN NEEDED, SHE SAYS

Make Better Men and Women, Mrs. E. T. Seton Asserts.

MUST LEARN NATURAL LAWS

"If You Catch Humanity Young Enough Chance of Letting in the Light is Greater," Declares Wife of Nature Writer—Lauds New Movement.

New York.—"One reason why I am so much interested in the outdoor movement that is sweeping over the country," said Mrs. Grace Gallatin Seton recently, "is because I believe that a nation can rise no higher than the level of its women and that it is best to begin early to make our women all that they should be to become the fitting wives and mothers of the race."

Mrs. Seton, wife of Ernest Thompson Seton and a member of the Council of the Woodcraft League, went on:

"It is also important to begin teaching the men while they are in the receptive period of boyhood the proper

MRS. ERNEST T. SETON.

attitude toward women. If boys and girls are brought up side by side with certain fundamental ideas of equality there will be no time when the man, having attained his majority, will have to reconstruct his ideas concerning the equal partnership of men and women in the various relationships of life, social, marital and civic.

"Nowadays a boy in many instances is permitted to feel when he comes into young manhood that his mother's opinions no longer have the same value they did when he was a growing boy. He thinks she doesn't understand the important things of life. Later, when his reason begins to operate, he has to fight the inheritance of a secret sense of man's superiority or remain hopelessly fixed in his view of humanity as a whole.

"One of the important things in the education of a boy is first of all to let him know the physical aspect of the country he lives in, the out of doors world about him and the natural laws that govern everything in it.

"And how important it is that the girls know outdoor life too! Therefore, that the training shall be fundamentally alike up to the point where it naturally separates, it is important that girls as well as boys shall have much of outdoor life in their younger years.

"A great deal of the value of outdoor life and work comes from the recovery of past knowledge of how to do things. It is a working out of the problem of development—a getting back to the source of creation in acquiring knowledge and efficiency in doing things.

"I see this outdoor movement as a vast picture. At the bottom is darkness, and ascending are layers of increasing light until the sun rays out its full glory above. Struggling, moving and growing all through these layers is humanity—souls in all stages of development. If you catch humanity young enough the chance of letting in the light is greater.

"If we are to develop in America distinctive schools of art, music and handicraft we must lay the foundations on those things which were distinctly American—woodcraft, outdoor life in general, the beautiful customs of the North American Indians and their art and picture writing. These we must first understand.

"Our woodcraft work is founded on the fundamental natural laws which were known to the North American Indians; hence many of their designs and symbols have been used in seeking to get back to the big constructive principles that govern human life. For instance, much symbolism is used. These symbols have their outer meaning for the passerby and their deeper spiritual significance for those who seek it.

"For our people to get the full benefit of the occasional respites from the workaday world that camping trips give they must know the wild by heart, and this can best be done by studying it when young; hence the importance of woodcraft work for boys and girls."

"THE OHIO LADY"

Hartman Theater, Columbus, Entire Week of January 24—Matinees Wednesday and Saturday—New Booth Tarkington-Julian Street Play Gets Start in Columbus.

One of the greatest and most interesting events in theatrical circles of Columbus, and of the entire state, in fact, will be the premier production at the Hartman on the evening of Monday, January 24, of "The Ohio Lady," the new Booth Tarkington-Julian Street play. After the opening the play will remain at the Hartman the entire week.

This event will bring to Columbus a number of people of importance in both the theatrical and newspaper world, who are interested in the first production this year of a genuine American play. It is a great honor to Ohio that for the heroine of this first American play of the year, an Ohio girl, a typical Ohio girl, has been characterized by Mr. Tarkington and Mr. Street, and that, too, a large part of the action of the play is laid in Ohio.

An interesting thing in connection with this work, considering its name and subject matter, is that of the producers, Klaw and Erlanger and George Tyler, two are Ohio men by birth and long residence. George Tyler was born in Chillicothe and spent some years in Columbus, where he was connected with the Columbus Times, of which his father was part owner and managing editor. Mr. Erlanger was born in Cleveland and started in that city the career which has made him at this time the most influential and important member of the theatrical world.

Mr. Tarkington is not an Ohioan, but he is next door to it, as a native of Indiana. His wife is an Ohio woman, a member of a socially prominent family at Dayton. He is one of our best known and most popular dramatists and novelists. His principal dramatic works are "The Man From Home," in which William Hodge starred with wonderful success for several years, and "Cameo Kirby" which he wrote with Harry Leon Wilson, and which also, curiously enough, had its premier in Columbus with Nat Goodwin in the leading part. Mr. Tarkington's first important novel was "The Gentleman From Indiana," which brought to the author immediate fame and popularity. His latest novel, published only six months ago, "The Turmoil," has been called by many reviewers "the great American novel."

Julian Street is a well known newspaper and magazine writer. His book, "Abroad at Home," published recently, is the result of a trip taken from coast to coast by Mr. Street. Both Mr. Tarkington and Mr. Street present, of course, at the premier of "The Ohio Lady" will be "The Ohio Lady."

The heroine of the play will be impersonated by Mary Nash. Owing to the unusual popularity of this brilliant young American actress, her services are so in demand for Broadway productions that she is seldom seen outside New York. When the authors and producers of "The Ohio Lady" decided that Miss Nash was their ideal for the heroine she was under contract to Grace George, as one of the most important members of Miss George's repertoire company, now playing in New York. So determined were the "Ohio Lady" producers to secure Miss Nash for the part, that they postponed the production of the play until they could obtain her release from Miss George. The company which will be seen in support of Miss Nash is an exceptionally brilliant one.

Prices will be 25, 50, 75 cents, $1, $1.50 and $2 at night. For the matinees the prices will be 25, 50, 75 cents, $1 and $1.50. Mail orders for this important engagement are being received now, and when accompanied by a remittance will be promptly filled and returned.

LIGHT ON LIGHT.

What it Really is and How its Waves Affect Our Eyes.

How many of us could say what "light" is?

Could we explain why the gloom of the streets seems increased tenfold when we leave a well lighted room? And do we know why all of us suffer discomfort, if not actual pain, when from darkness we enter a brilliantly lighted place?

The discomfort on entering a lighted room after darkness is because the optic nerve, which receives light just as the drum of the ear receives sounds, is suddenly burdened with light rays before the pupil of the eye has had time to contract to receive them. The pupils dilate very much in the dark in order to admit every ray possible, and a dilated pupil cannot, without discomfort, suddenly receive an abundance of light rays.

When the pupils contract there is an automatic adjustment to the quantity of light. When we "peer" we are really only adjusting our pupils. Going from brilliant light to darkness, the pupils do not dilate instantly. They remain contracted and cannot for a time collect what light there is. So the darkness appears intensified.

Cats, owls and other animals see in the dark because they have the power of enlarging their broad pupils and collecting light which is invisible to us. Light itself is a fluid of luminous ether, which fills up the spaces in the air particles. It has an undulating vibratory movement, which strikes on the optic nerve, giving us the sensation of "light."—Pearson's Weekly.

FREE LECTURES

AT CHERRY HILL

The meeting of the Parents-Teachers club at Cherry Hill this week was one of the best attended of the series, with more than a hundred present.

The first of a series of twelve lectures which will be given at intervals until the close of the term was delivered by Prof. G. F. Morgan, of Ohio University, Athens.

It proved to be a most interesting trip through the Canadian Rockies section, illustrated by the stereopticon.

These lectures will be free, although a voluntary offering will be taken to pay the small expense.

There was great interest manifested at the meeting. Mr. Reno, president, appointed on the program committee Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, Mr. O.
S. Nelson, Mr. F. B. Toops.

TWO MORE SUITS

AGAINST THE B. & O.

Two big damage suits against the
B. & O. railroad, growing out of the Orient wreck, were filed in Madison county common pleas court this week.

The first is that of Grant Jones
as administrator of Thornton D.
Neff, deceased, in which $25,000 is asked for the death of Mr. Neff, who was instantly killed in the wreck.

The second suit is that of Phetna Neff in which she asks $15000 damages for injuries sustained in the wreck. Fred Crabbe, C. R. Horne-beck and Crabbe & Johnson are attorneys for the plaintiff.

HANDSOME RESIDENCE

PROPERTIES CHANGE

The two story residence property on Rawlins street owned by the Millikan estate and occupied by Mr.
Houp and daughter Miss Mable, was sold Friday to Mr. and Mrs. James
A. Crawford, who will occupy it while building their new home on N. North street. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will give possession to Mrs.
Lucy Ginn, who purchased some time ago, their present residence, the first of February, and move their household goods to the Rawlins street house although they will not begin housekeeping there until their return from Florida. They expect to leave for the south in February.

PRAISES PIANOS

Calisto R. Llamas, the gifted pianist who delighted the Washington audience with his brilliant playing, Friday night, used a Hobert M. Cable piano, which H. C. Summers & Son have sold for years, and was greatly pleased with the instrument.

"Only too often," said Mr. Llamas
"the available piano is of an inferior grade, and it is an effort to use such an instrument, but if I could have such a piano as the Cable, I am sure the audience would be no more pleased than myself."

Inquiries were made as to whether or not the piano had been brought by the pianist, and elicited the information that it had been furnished by Messrs Summers of this city.

Needs No Lightning Rod.

A building 9,000 feet above sea level should be protected by lightning rods, one thinks, but the astronomical observatory at Mount Etna has not and does not need such protection. The observatory is near the summit of the volcano, and the stream of vapor constantly rising from the crater acts as a natural conductor, draining the electricity out of the clouds, so that lightning is seldom seen there.

TWENTY-EIGHT

ARE INDICTED

By Associated Press.

Youngstown, O., January 15.—Indictments were returned today against 26 persons, in a partial report made by the grand jury investigating the strike riots in East Youngstown.

All those indicted are foreign-born workmen.

EMELINE HALTED

By Associated Press.

New York, January 15.—Federal authorities detained Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, British suffrage leader, at Ellis Island today when she arrived on the steamship St. Paul, because she had served a sentence in a British prison.

She was similarly detained two years ago, but was quickly released.
She says she has come to this country in the interest of the Serbian relief fund.

"MINE HOST" HAGLER

FILLS ROLE ABLY

Mr. Howard Hagler entertained the Fair Board and friends to the number of twenty-four at an elegant turkey dinner at the Y. M. C.
A. Saturday noon.

After a merry dinner hour Mr. E.
E. Cockerill called for toasts, which were responded to informally by Chas. Allen, W. B. Rogers, Wm. Worthington, G. H. Hitchcock, H. W.
Wilson and Frank M. Kennedy. Each speaker waxed more eloquent than the last in appreciation of Mr. Hagler's entertainment of the day and also his effective work in connection with the Board.

The popular director finally rose to protest against any more bouquets and stopped the speeches with pertinent humor.

WILD ALL THROUGH.

The American Bay Lynx Is an Animal That Can't Be Tamed.

We call him the American wildcat, although he is of a different species from the wildcat of Europe. His real name is bay lynx, and he is closely associated with that other animal of America, the Canadian lynx. The European wildcat is really the ancestor of the domestic cat, but you can't domesticate the bay lynx of America.
He is wild all the way through.

He gets his front name from his color,
which is a yellowish brown or bay.
His tail is short, which has given him another name—bobcat. Unlike most cats, he is a good swimmer, and his hind feet are partly webbed.

The bay lynx frequents mountain woodlands in the less settled portions of America, and sometimes he makes his presence dreaded by his raids on poultry. He is also a persistent robber of birds' nests, and he will eat both birds and eggs. He will also devour squirrels, rabbits, wild turkeys and anything that isn't too big for him to kill.

His appetite for animals has led people to fear him, although he will seldom attack human beings—only when he thinks he has to defend himself.
He usually builds a nest of moss and leaves in a hollow tree.—Philadelphia North American.

SCIENCE OF NOSES.

In Size and Shape, It Is Said, Is Shown
the Wearer's Character.

Nasography reveals the character, habits and inclinations of people by a simple inspection of noses. According to the system, the nose should be as long as possible, and this is a sign of merit, power and genius. Examples—Napoleon and Caesar, both of whom had large noses. A straight nose denotes a just, serious and energetic mind. The Roman nose a propensity for adventure and a wide nose with open nostrils is a mark of great sensuality.
A cleft nose shows benevolence. It was the nose of St. Vincent de Paul.

The curved fleshy nose is a mark of domination and cruelty. Catherine de Medici and Elizabeth of England had noses of this kind. The curved, thin nose, on the contrary, is a mark of a brilliant mind, but vain and disposed to be ironical. It is the nose of a dreamer, a poet or a critic. If the line of the nose is re-entrante—that is, if the nose is turned up—it denotes that its owner has a weak mind, sometimes coarse, and generally playful, pleasant and frolicsome. A pale nose denotes egotism, envy, heartlessness. The quick, passionate, sanguine man has a strongly colored nose of uniform shade.

He That Loveth a Book.

He that loveth a book will never be without a faithful friend, a wholesome counselor, a cheerful companion, an effectual comforter. By study, by reading, by thinking, one may innocently divert and pleasantly entertain himself, as in all weathers, so in all fortunes—

GRAYSON ADVISER

TO THE PRESIDENT

White House Doctor Man of Ability and Tact.

MAKING RECORD AT HIS POST

Has Elevated Position to One of Diginity and Honor—Regulates President's Office Hours and Sometimes His Statements to Reporters—Valuable as Diplomat and Practitioner.

Washington.—It's a sweet little job,
these days, being private and personal physician to the president of the United States. From a medical viewpoint it's not a particularly trying post, but the position embraces about fifty-seven other tasks, all calling for the tact, memory and general ability of a corporation counsel.

Slipping in and out of the White House, a little man with a keen, incise eye and manner of speech, but with an affability of manner which immediately attracts attention, can often be seen these days. His name is Cary T. Grayson, and his name carries

DR. CARY T. GRAYSON.

with it the initials "U. S. N.," which means he is a member of the medical corps of the navy.

Grayson is the man who brought the position of presidential doctor out of obscurity and elevated it to a post of honor, dignity and efficiency in White House circles. Before Grayson came a White House doctor was a mysterious personage, little known and less cared about. Grayson combines this position with the one left vacant by the late Major Archibald Butt and fills both with complete satisfaction.

On the whole, the practice of medicine on the president of the United States is the least of Grayson's tasks.
He's a sort of confidential family adviser to President Wilson, and he also regulates the president's office hours—and sometimes his statements to reporters. When the president is away from Washington, Grayson is oftentimes the sole connecting link between the head of the American nation and the representatives of the American press.

In more ways than one this black haired, pleasant faced, affable mannered, efficient man has attained distinction and a record during the time
Woodrow Wilson has occupied the White House. He is usually spoken of as "Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N.," the president's personal physician," but that's merely the correspondents' method of repaying in formality the informal, gracious kindnesses of the president's doctor.

In size Grayson is a small man, but that doesn't apply to his ability. He has a long, straight nose, jet black hair and deep set eyes that twinkle with humorous appreciation half the time. Sometimes they don't twinkle, but that's when Grayson is "on the road" with his distinguished patient, and the responsibility of his position at such a time is apt to take the twinkle from any one's eyes.

The president is an indefatigable worker, and like all men of his temperament he has the habit of neglecting his personal health when involved in a deep and delicate problem. Grayson, however, is always hovering in the background, guarding him against overwork, driving him forth to the golf links or for an automobile ride, urging plenty of sleep, a careful diet and all the other details necessary to a president's health.

These are a part of his duties when the president is at home. Grayson's duties at such times become comparatively light, and he is enabled to take up his other work at the Naval hospital at Washington, where he has a regular quota of patients who demand his attention so long as he remains in the city.

But when the president takes to his private car for a swift whirl to New York, to Cornish or elsewhere, Grayson suddenly stands forth as the czar of the executive's private car. Grayson is strong on the point of exercise.
He insists that the president take exercise at any and all times, and the president, fortunately, when the matter is brought to his attention, is always willing to exercise.

LITERARY FORGERIES.

Stuff With Which Vrain-Lucas Duped
An Aged Scientist.

The most remarkable literary forgery on record was perpetrated in 1870 on Michael Charles, a French scientist of European reputation. Charles, who was in his dotage, purchased within a few years from one Vrain-Lucas no fewer than 27,000 autographs. A. M.
Broadley tells the story in his "Chats on Autographs."

"Beginning with a supposed correspondence between the youthful Newton and Pascal, Vrain-Lucas proceeded to fabricate letters of Rabelais, Montesquieu and La Bruyere. Before he had finished M. Charles became the possessor of letters in French, and written on paper made in France, of Julius Caesar, Cleopatra, Mary Magdalene and even of Lazarus after his resurrection."

Vrain-Lucas was sentenced to two years' imprisonment, and among other forged manuscripts from his pen there were produced in court letters from Alexander the Great, Herod, Pompey, Judas Iscariot, Sappho, Pontius Pilate
and Joan of Arc.

Battlecry of the Cat.

The piercing wavery of the cat in the night startles and exasperates us beyond all bearing—not by its load-ness, but by a certain vicious, weird, half terrifying, half infuriating note in it that makes us spring to arms with the bootlace, or other substitute for the boomerang, as the warwhoop of our tribal enemies did a century or centuries ago, says Dr. Woods Hutchinson.

One of Mark Twain's wise old frontiersmen had caught this note when he explained to the tenderfoot that animal speech had rules of composition and grammar, just like human speech, and that "the reason a cat riles ye so ain't on account of the noise she makes, but on account of the sickenin' bad grammar she uses." And he was right, for the grammar of scarp lifting and the whole alphabet of battle, murder and sudden death tingles and screams in the rasping cry.

The Weather Changeth Not.

The oldest weather diary known to be in existence was kept by a Lincolnshire parson, William Merle, close on 600 years ago. From 1337 to 1344 he wrote it up, often day by day, in Latin, and his manuscript, being on vellum, was somehow preserved and is now in the Bodleian. Merle did not trouble himself with the popular lore about "skye influences," but stuck to an accurate record of fact, in the spirit at least of the modern meteorologists. And from his jottings it seems that he had pretty much the same kind of weather to deal with as folks in his parish of Friby experience now.
Contrary to theory, the changes of six centuries have not reduced the number of wet days in the year.—London Chronicle.

THREE KNOWN TO HAVE PERISHED—SCORE INJURED UNITED STATES SUBMARINE BOAT E-2 IS BLOWN UP

EASTERN FIELD OF WAR RESUMES PROMINENCE AFTER DAYS OF QUIET

Russian Armies Resume Offensive in Bessarabia.

Vienna Reports Austrian Lines Have Withstood Repeated Attacks.

Both Sides Claim to Have Taken Many Prisoners in Campaigns.

By Associated Press. London, January 15.—The eastern field of war again resumes prominence with the resumption of the offensive by the Russians in Bessarabia.

There has been a cessation of activity in that part of the fighting front for several days.

Vienna now reports, however, that the Austrian lines have again been subjected to determined attacks, but the Russian attempts to break through were repulsed although the attacking forces in great numbers advanced five times to the assault, the Austrian artillery proving deadly in stopping the Russian offensive.

It is claimed by the Austrian War Office that since the inauguration of the winter operations in eastern Galicia and Bessarabia, more than five thousand Russians, including thirty officers, have been taken prisoners. The Russians also have claimed numerous captures and have declared that notable gains of ground have been made during the operations north of Czernowitz.

The Austrians refuse to concede the Russian claims and declare their lines have held firm at all stages.

The Austrians, who at present are the most actively engaged of any of the belligerents are pressing their campaign against Montenegro and announce further advances into the interior of the little kingdom.

The Montenegrins are in retreat and are suffering heavy losses in men and guns, according to Vienna. Germany, in replying to Great Britain in the Baralong case, reiterates the charges made against the British auxiliary cruiser's officers, accused in affidavits of Americans on the steamer Nicosan of having refused quarter to members of a German submarine's crew.

The German government declares unacceptable the British offer to submit the Baralong case to a tribunal comprised of American naval officers. Germany would submit three specific cases of alleged outrages committed by Germans to the same court, Germany declaring that in none of the cases mentioned were German officers trying to destroy helpless persons.

In view of the British declaration to bring the accused officers of the Baralong to trial, Germany, the official note announces, will take matters into her own hands and adopt measures of reprisal corresponding with the provocation.

Deck of Submarine Entirely Blown Out—First Estimates of Horror Give Larger List of Killed.

By Associated Press. New York, January 15.—The United States Submarine E-2 was today blown up and sunk in the Brooklyn navy yard.

A report from the yard to police headquarters said twenty men had been killed and a number injured.

The submarine was blown apart, it was said, at the navy yard by an internal explosion, the cause of which is not yet known.

New York, January 15.—An explosion aboard the submarine E-2, in dry dock at the New York navy yard, caused the death today of at least three members of the crew and injured a number of others, variously reported at from six to twenty.

One was killed outright and two died later at the naval hospital at the yard.

Six, seriously injured, were taken to the hospital shortly after the explosion occurred at about 1:45 o'clock.

At 3 p. m., others rescued from the interior of the submarine were being brought in.

The explosion was said to be due to hydrogen gas, ignited while the new batteries invented by Thomas A. Edison, were being recharged.

Newspapermen were barred from the navy yard, and authentic details could not be obtained during the first two hours following the explosion.

Some reports have it that ten men were in the submarine at the time and that eight or nine were instantly killed.

The deck of the submarine was entirely blown out, it was reported outside of the yards.

Several officers who attempted to enter the submarine at the head of a rescue party, were driven back by the fumes, and it was reported at 3 p. m. that a number of bodies were still in the interior.

Four of the injured, who were removed to the naval hospital just outside the yard, were thought by surgeons to have little chance of recovery.

They were: L. C. Miles, chief electrician, of Brooklyn; John Holsey, seaman, of Baltimore; Guy Clark Jr., of Frankfort, N. Y., and Raymond Ott, of Middleburg, Md.

Rear Admiral Nathaniel Usher, commandant of the navy yard, was listening to Secretary Daniel's speech on preparedness at the Democratic Club here when he was informed of the explosion.

He went at once to the navy yard and told newspapermen he would make an immediate investigation. An aide of Secretary Daniels accompanied Admiral Usher.

The New Chalmers Six at $1050

The Chalmers Motor Co.

this week enters the low-priced car field with its new little Six, known as Model 6-30, as the instrument. It is a vehicle with a 3 1/4 by 4 1/2 six-cylinder motor and a wheel base of 115 inches, and it is priced at $1050. In thus marking a new epoch in Chalmers' history the concern is undoubtedly amply able to carry out its manufacturing intentions to the letter. The factory is a 25-acre institution with most modern buildings and equipment, and its action in bringing out a car at the price is but another indication of the trend of the times.

CARRANZA MUST PUNISH BANDITS

Wilson Waiting For Him to

MUST CAPTURE MURDERERS

No Departure From Administration's Policy of Watchful Waiting Pending Demonstration of Mexican Ruler's Ability to Protect Lives of Foreigners—Vigorous Action In Case of Slain Americans Promised.

Washington, Jan. 15.—General Carranza is to be given full opportunity to run down and punish the Mexican bandits responsible for the massacre of seventeen Americans at Santa Ysabel last Monday. This is the decision of President Wilson and his advisers. Pending a demonstration in this way of Carranza's ability to protect the lives of foreigners in Mexico there will be no departure from the administration's policy of "watchful waiting." A decision to this effect was reached at the cabinet meeting.

General Carranza has promised vigorous action. In a telegram to Arredondo, Mexican designate here, the first chief says: "The murderous attack on the passenger train near Chihuahua was made by the only remaining band of outlaws in that region. This band is being actively pursued in order to insure its capture, whereupon condign punishment which their crime deserves will be meted out to every guilty participant. The Constitutional government troops have been ordered to establish strong patrols from end to end of the railway line in order to forfend against similar outrages."

While the president and his advisers are insisting as strongly as ever on a continuance of "watchful waiting," sentiment in congress in opposition to the policy and in favor of vigorous action is growing. Another resolution calling for intervention was introduced, and the sharpest attacks that have yet been made upon the president's course toward Mexico were heard in the senate.

Some of the president's supporters in congress are showing signs of wavering. Speaker Clark made this statement in regard to Mexico: "There is nothing to say about the Mexican situation except that the United States ought to compel the people down there to respect American rights as to persons and property."

SENATE ADJOURNS

Washington, Jan. 15.—The senate adjourned until Monday, the purpose being to try to put a stop to the daily debate on Mexican affairs. Senator Fall of New Mexico, Republican, said in the senate that when records in the state department were produced they would show that the order issued to the United States marines who entered Vera Cruz was that they should not fire until they had been fired upon, and then before firing to locate the particular Mexican who had fired and await a second fire before responding to it. "The marines took their death warrants with them when they went into Vera Cruz," said Senator Fall.

ENEMY MOVES SOUTHWARD

Little Nation Now Encompassed On All Sides Except In the South, Where the Fleeing Troops Will Be Confronted by Hostile Albanian Tribesmen—Turks Capture Important Persian City.

London, Jan. 15.—With Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, in their hands, the Austrians are continuing their march southwestward toward the fortified port of Antivari, driving before them a force of the soldiers of King Nicholas.

Montenegro is now encompassed on all sides, except in the south, by the invaders, and across the southern border in Albania, should the Montenegrins be driven there, they will face foes in the Albanian tribesmen. With the fall of their capital and with no let-up apparent in the Austrian pressure against them, the situation of the Montenegrins is a critical one.

Kermansha, the so-called capital of Persia, famous for its rugs and carpets and surrounded by fertile wheat country, has been entered by the Ottoman forces, who were warmly received by the populace.

Little fighting is going on along the various fronts, except by means of the big guns and sapping operations. The entente fleet again has bombarded Turkish positions on the evacuated Gallipoli peninsula.

Since the blowing up of the railroad bridges near the Greek frontier by the engineers of the entente allies there have been no developments tending to show a change in the situation there. Nothing has come through concerning the promised attack by the Teutonic allies along the line leading to the base of the entente allies at Salonica, but advices from the Macedonian seaport are that the British and French continue to land reinforcements there in large numbers. It is hoped by them to make Salonica a second Ypres in strength of resisting ability.

MINERS DESIRE 10 PER CENT LIFT

Columbus, Jan. 15.—The report of the wage scale committee was adopted by the Ohio miners' convention. It calls for an advance of 10 per cent on machine and pick mining, a proportionate advance on all dead work, deficient work and yardage; that the coal be weighed before it is screened and paid for on the mine run basis; and a uniform outside and inside day wage scale with the same relative advance in the rate. The demands also provide that no scale shall be agreed to that takes away the right of state officers to call a strike after they have investigated the grievances and disagreed with the company.

The present wage contract expires March 31. Demands for the new contract to begin April 1 will not be presented to the operators until after the Indianapolis convention, which begins next Tuesday.

The El Paso Disturbances

The rioting in El Paso, Texas, assumed such violence and was so wide spread on Thursday night that it became necessary for the civil authorities to call a detachment of federal troops from Fort Bliss to work side by side with the police in quelling the disturbances.

Many American residents of the border city had become so enraged at the villianous treatment accorded residents of the United States by Mexicans across the Rio Grande that self control was no longer possible and attacks on Mexicans in the poorer sections of the city were numerous and violent in the extreme.

Order was restored not without considerable difficulty and the infliction of bodily injury on some of the rioters.

The most disturbing reports, however, from the trouble zone along the border are that miners and cattlemen are banding together for the avowed purpose of conducting an expedition into Mexico to avenge the outrages perpetrated by Mexicans.

It is announced that more than fifty thousand requests have been sent broadcast throughout the United States for recruits.

It is sincerely hoped by the more sober minded Americans both on the border and in the interior that the proposal will be abandoned or checkmated by the authorities before any overt act, which might be construed as hostile by the Carranza government, is committed.

The residents of the border regions have suffered much at the hands of Mexicans—both authorities and bandits—and they are to be, in a measure, forgiven for their lapses of self control.

Public men, however, should see to it that no intemperate speeches tending to intensify the bitter feeling now existing, are indulged in. The duty of the public official is to use every endeavor to calm the feeling of hostility rather than to encourage those who hold that feeling to the point where it breaks the bonds of self control.

What of the War This Year?

With the year 1916 now scarcely two weeks old, it is perhaps a little early to make predictions as to the result of this year's warfare in Europe. Especially is that true if the predictions are based on the results accomplished and the failures encountered by the belligerents in the campaign of this year.

The European war has exhibited a decided tendency to produce results contrary to the advance predictions of experts any way. In that it does not differ greatly from most of the wars which have gone before.

The year 1914, the first of the war, when all critics and experts were predicting disaster to the allied armies even to the extreme of prophesying the capture of Paris, victory, slight it is true, nevertheless decisive, perched on the banner of the allies and the prepared German armies were turned back after they had driven their way through all opposition to the very gates of Paris.

Encouraged by the gallant opposition of the Belgians, in the face of tremendous odds, the allied forces compelled the Germanic allies to retreat almost to the borders of France.

The year 1915 began with the experts predicting that the entente powers would enjoy marked successes because the central powers had become exhausted with the offensive fighting of the year before and France, England and Russia were at last ready.

The disaster to the Russian troops in East Prussia and Galicia, the reverses suffered by the allies in the Balkans, the gigantic failure at the Dardanelles while France and England failed to make advance in the west contradicted the experts.

Turn about is the rule, fortune, fate, or whatever other name one may choose to call it, has thus far observed.

Is the coming year to again witness successes of the entente powers? Events of the year past do not seem to justify that prediction, but again the unexpected may happen.

Changing of the School System

Right now the method of conducting public schools, both rural and urban, is coming in for its full share of criticism and suggestion.

The present school system has endured for a long time. Changes have been made and progress has been made by improving the system—extending it along some lines and restricting it in certain other lines, but until recently no revolutionary changes in the system itself have been advocated by any recognized authority on the subject of common schools.

The Gray system, as advocated by Mr. Wirt of the Gary schools is in the forefront of public attention.

Mr. Wirt insists that the public is not receiving enough of benefit from the investment in school properties. The Gary idea would, in short, make the school properties available for the youth all the year round and render them useful for all requirements of the developing youth of the land. For study, for teaching, for play and for work. The ideas advanced are revolutionary and would entail an extra cost of maintenance which would be found quite a difficulty to be surmounted in the smaller cities.

Poetry For Today

THE PESSIMIST BREAKS LOOSE.

There is a land of small delight
Where all we mortals dwell,
Where something pesters day and night
And holidays as well.
Misfortune's ice is spread afar,
Whereon each mortal slips;
And those who dodge the motor car
Appendicitis grips.

While shines the sun man maketh hay,
And sunstroke is his gain.
He saveth for a rainy day;
And lo, it doesn't rain.
The demon corn gnaws at his feet,
Or pain his eye tooth rides,
Or something that he's had to eat
Disturbs his whole insides.

His wife deletes what'er he's earned
And buyeth flats galore,
And, every time his back is turned,
They raise his taxes more.
Almost before he gets to bed
A new day doth commence,
Full oft he'd wish that he were dead
Except for the expense.

Such is the life we mortals live—
A paltry, tiresome task.
All joys are given in a sieve,
Cares in a stoppered flask;
If poor, a man is thought a dunce;
If rich, 'tis called a crime.
Good fortune knocks, 'tis said, but once;
Hard luck knocks all the time.

Why Wet Land Is Cold.

C. G. Hopkins, soil expert, says that five times as much heat is required to evaporate water from the surface of a soil as would be needed to raise the temperature of the same amount of water from the freezing to the boiling point, says Farm and Fireside. This explains why wet and poorly drained soils are cold.

The drainage removes the excess of water. Then the heat of the sun is able to make some headway in warming the soil. But if the soil is continually saturated with water the constant evaporation keeps the temperature down in spite of the sun's warmth.

INJUNCTION HALTS THE CITY CONTRACTING FOR LIGHTS

Court Issues Restraining Order When Amended and Supplemental Petition Is Filed.

LEGALITY OF COUNCIL ACTION AGAIN ATTACKED

Petition Alleges That Council "Hedged" Their Action Toward Contracting.

Upon application of R. C. Hunt, as a tax payer of the city of Washington, in an amended and supplemental petition, filed in the common pleas court Friday evening, Judge Carpenter, after hearing argument on the case Saturday morning, overruled a motion to strike from the files the amended supplemental petition, and granted a restraining order preventing the city from entering into a contract for street lighting.

The order of the court did not prevent the filing of and opening of bids for lighting the streets, but restrains the contract letting until further order of the court. A bond of $1,000 was required of the plaintiffs.

The original suit of R. C. Hunt and others against the city was filed September 27, 1915, and attacked the legality of the "pretended" contract entered into between the city and the Washington Gas & Electric Company.

The amended and supplemental petition contains 15 typewritten pages and sets forth that since the original action was filed, council rescinded the alleged letting of contract, and took other steps, which are challenged as illegal, such as passing special assessing ordinances for a proposed "white way" and "pretending" to contract for an engineer at $1200.

Plaintiff charges that the city council hedged about the matter of calling for bids for street lighting, in order to limit the eligibility of bidders, and in a manner favoring the Washington Gas & Electric Co. That a certified check of $7500 was required, and the work to begin within ten days or the sum forfeited; that $1200 of the amount was finally to be retained to pay for the services of an engineer. This, the plaintiff claims, was formulated by H. Whitford Jones.

Plaintiff asked that the city be enjoined from contracting, and that upon final hearing the order be made permanent, and that the proceedings of council be adjudged invalid and set aside.

The plaintiff is represented by John Logan.

Only one bid for street lighting was submitted and opened by the Service-Safety Director at noon Saturday. The bid in question was that of The Washington Gas & Electric Company, which was accompanied by a certified check for $1200 and which covered the street lighting alone. The bid was substantially the same as that of last fall.

CALL ETERNAL FOR DR. CLEMANS

Rev. F. M. Clemans, D. D., who has been in declining health for some time, died at his home on Washington avenue, shortly before midnight, Friday. The funeral services will be conducted at Grace church Sunday, January 16th, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. J. V. Stone will have charge. President Herbert Welch of Ohio Wesleyan University and other ministers are expected to assist. The remains will be interred at Jamestown, Ohio, at 10:30 a. m., Monday. A number of Dr. Clemans' ministerial friends have been notified and some of them will be at the funeral.

The deceased was born near Jamestown, Ohio, June 24, 1835, and at the time of his death was aged 80 years, 6 months and 22 days. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Laura J. Johnson and Mrs. Lottie Grove, both living at Van Wert, and two sons, W. L. Clemans, of Cedarville, and Fred M. Clemans, cashier of the Mechanicsburg bank.

Dr. Clemans was twice married, first to Miss Sarah I. Chaffin, and after her death to her cousin, Miss Clara C. Chaffin. To the first union four children were born, the two daughters dying in young girlhood.

For 12 years prior to entering the ministry Dr. Clemans was a school teacher and for five years was superintendent of the Jamestown public schools. He was a great student. He held six honorary degrees from colleges, including Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Laws and Master of Arts. He was a fine Hebrew scholar, and for forty years was a prominent minister of the Cincinnati conference of the M. E. church, having filled a number of important city appointments including Dayton, Middletown and elsewhere.

After retiring from the active ministry Dr. Clemans served for some time as the Cincinnati District Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

About 14 years ago Dr. and Mrs. Clemans located on their farm, three miles west of New Holland, where they lived until building a home in Washington C. H., moving into it the first of last March. Mrs. Clemans dying there September 3, 1915.

MOTION IS MADE FOR A NEW TRIAL

The suit of Minnie Hodson against her father, B. F. Hodson, was up before Judge Newby on the motion for a new trial. This case, it will be remembered, the jury returned a judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $7,500. Miss Hodson accused her father of having struck her in the side with his fist injuring her badly and causing her to suffer a nervous breakdown.

Judge Newby did not decide the motion, but said he was greatly surprised that the jury had returned a verdict for such a large sum. He told the attorneys for the parties that he did not think that it should be necessary to retry the case and advised them to get together and agree upon a settlement. — Hillsboro News-Herald.

RAWELS MAKE DECIDED HIT

The Rawels, gifted New Zealanders, and Celestio R. Llamas, brilliant Filipino pianist, of Manila, Philippines, entertained and delighted a large audience at Grace church, Friday night, giving one of the most unique and fascinating and thoroughly enjoyable and instructive entertainments ever presented by the Washington Lyceum Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawels portrayed, in charming manner, the rise of their people from savagery to civilization, in the course of 60 years time, showing a large amount of handwork of the islanders, telling of their habits, rendering their love songs, ballads and war songs of years ago, and by their music, songs and pictures showing the great transformation wrought in a remarkable people in a very short time.

The brilliant work of Mr. Llamas, who is substituting for the young Mr. Rawels who is now traveling through the west, drew great outbursts of applause, and the talented young Filipino was pronounced by many to be the best pianist ever appearing on the local lyceum course.

One of his remarkable feats was the faultless playing of Lucia's "Sextette" with the left hand only. His interpretation was almost faultless and nothing, apparently, was too difficult for him to perform on the piano.

Following the entertainment scores flocked about the exhibits which were explained by Mr. Rawels. One piece of native cloth shown was more than 80 years old, and still in splendid condition.

The next number of the lyceum course will be the "American Girls," on Saturday night, January 29th.

NEW ASSIGNMENT IN COMMON PLEAS

Wednesday, February 2. — 13741, C. N. McCoy vs. David Morris.

FATHER AND SON ARE BOUND OVER

Benjamin Babbitt and son Wilbur Babbitt, of Wellston, arrested this week for stealing a horse from Milton Hill, of Pickaway county, were held to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each when they faced Justice Lindsay in Circleville Friday.

The two men had been working in the neighborhood of Orient and when they returned to their home are alleged to have taken the horse with them, a thing not new in this part of Ohio.

MAN WHO SHOT INTRUDER WILL NOT BE ARRESTED

Thomas Chenoweth, the man who shot and fatally wounded George Bowles, colored, when he discovered Bowles in his house about midnight recently, and who shot after the man had refused to leave the premises when ordered to do so, will not be arrested for the shooting, the mere fact that the man shot was a burglar in the act of burglarizing the premises, and had broken into the premises, being sufficient to justify the deed, it is claimed.

The colored intruder, soon after being shot, was given every attention by a physician, but death occurred Wednesday following an operation.

The body of the dead man was taken in charge by relatives from Oxford, and removed to that place for interment.

Mr. Chenoweth is greatly worried over the affair which made it necessary to take the man's life.

Acting under the belief that a man's home is sacred and that he who breaks into the home does so at the risk of his life, the coroner probably will return a verdict of justifiable homicide.

INTEREST INCREASES AT THE TABERNACLE

There was a large crowd at the tabernacle meeting on Sunnyside Friday night, conducted by Evangelist D. B. Willhite and J. W. Troy, musical director. An unusual amount of interest was shown and it was after 10 o'clock when the special prayer service in the annex was concluded.

People were present from various parts of town and many rose for prayers. An earnest appeal was made by Evangelist Willhite for people to start in the new life. Church members from various city churches came forward when asked to come to the front and assist in the special prayer service.

The speaker's subject was "Excuses," and he told about the many sorts of made up excuses that people resort to to win their point.

He declared that "a man can't be a true Christian and lead a double life, and a made-up excuse will not save him when the critical comes. The right kind of religion makes people honest and square. There will be services at the tabernacle tonight and tomorrow night beginning at 7 o'clock.

It is expected that the meeting Sunday night will bring out a record breaking crowd, and a special program will be provided.

Tonight three evangelists and evangelistic singers will be on a platform and a meeting of deep interest is expected.

"THE MERRY BURLESQUERS"

Beauty, song and fun will be the master of the situation at the Empire Theater tonight, when the burlesque revolution "The Merry Burlesquers" will appear, presenting a program full of redeeming features. Opening with the breezy satirical, "Going Right Out," "Fun in a Hotel," which serves to introduce the entire company in a rapid round of music and song followed by a splendid olio of high vaudeville numbers and novelties.

The closing number and particular feature will be the superb musical burlesque "From Broadway to Atlantic City," the biggest thing ever attempted in Burlesque and described as a crystal maze of scenic surprises and electrical effects, demonstrating the efforts of a master of stage craft. In point of costuming, etc., it is very elaborate, to say the twenty singing beauties are a treat to the eye and ear but putting it mildly. There are twelve big song hits while the show is fast, furious and all new.

FOUR FOOTED ELK IS COMING TO THIS CITY

Big Fellow Is Purchased of Cincinnati Zoo and Will Arrive in This City Next Tuesday in Charge of a Keeper—Hide Will Be Mounted.

A genuine Elk is coming to town—a real, live, big as life and twice as handsome, four-footed fellow who tips the scales at 650 pounds.

The coming of the elk to this city is due to a visit made to Cincinnati Friday by Messrs Jess W. Smith and C. A. Gossard, who closed a deal with the Cincinnati Zoo Company, through Supt. Sol Stephen, for a fine specimen of the noble animal.

The elk is past two years old and weighs 650 pounds, and has a splendid spread of antlers.

Messrs Smith and Gossard purchased the animal outright, and he will be shipped to this city next Tuesday in charge of a keeper.

It is planned to have an expert taxidermist mount the fine skin of the big fellow and place it in the Elks' home in this city.

The elk responds to the name of "Bill."

HOME BOY ENTERS IN BIG CONTEST

Little Robert Robinson Baird, known to nearly every man, woman and child in Washington, has entered the big contest now being conducted by The Curtis Publishing Company.

That company is going to give away as rewards to its circulation builders throughout the country the sum of $15000, the size of the reward depending, of course, on the number of subscribers the entrants can turn in to the company at the expiration of the specified period. The publications are the Ladies Home Journal, al, The Saturday Evening Post and The Country Gentleman.

Little Robert Baird has become quite a familiar figure on the streets of Washington soliciting subscriptions and delivering the several publications. At present he is in South Carolina with his grandmother and in his absence Harold Rodecker is very generously looking after his interests. Those who contemplate subscribing for any one of the publications mentioned can, without cost to themselves, assist him very materially by allowing him to send in their subscriptions.

Little Robert enters the contest with a splendid list of subscribers and his opportunity of securing a substantial portion of the big award are considered by his friends to be excellent.

Certainly the cause is a worthy one and once their attention is directed to it Washington and Fayette county people will be glad to help along.

It should be stated that there are no other contestants in this district.

BARGER TO QUIT OFFICE AND LEAVE CITY TOMORROW

To carry out an understanding the committee appointed to draft charges of immoral conduct against City Solicitor Taylor L. Barger, he will tender his resignation as solicitor of the city and, with his family, depart from the city tomorrow, presumably for the south, and will remain away from the city for an indefinite period.

In case Barger carries out the provisions of the understanding with the committee, Mayor Oster will appoint his successor. Former Solicitor Pope Gregg is favorably mentioned for the office.

CANDIDACY OF HERRICK IS FINALLY ANNOUNCED

Would Represent Ohio In the United States Senate.

Cleveland, Jan. 15.—Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio and former ambassador to France, announced his candidacy for the United States senate, subject to the decision of the coming Republican primary. His secretary, H. M. Laudon, gave out this statement:

"Mr. Herrick believes that the next six years will be most important ones in congress, years in which our form of government may be put to a serious test. Mr. Herrick is now dissociated from business and is in a position to give his time to public affairs. He has not felt like forcing his candidacy on the people of the state, consequently he has waited to learn whether there was a real sentiment for his candidacy. The information that has come to him has been such as to lead him to believe that there is a genuine desire on the part of a large number that he become a candidate for the next senate, and he has decided to do so."

For some weeks petitions urging Colonel Herrick to enter the race have been circulated at various points throughout the state and have been numerous signed. He will be opposed at the primary by Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus, who was decided upon as the senatorial candidate at a meeting of the Republican leaders some time ago, and by others.

DAUGHERTY'S VIEW

Columbus, Jan. 15.—In response to a request for a statement, following the announcement of Mr. Herrick's candidacy for the United States senate, Harry M. Daugherty made this remark: "Considering what Mr. Herrick said to me, I am surprised; considering the situation, I am content."

GREAT OIL MERGER ON

New York, Jan. 15.—Practically all of the details for the formation of a great $150,000,000 oil merger, headed by the Mexican Petroleum company as the center of all the other concerns, have been completed with the exception of the formal signing of the contracts. The merger is one of the largest oil amalgamations which has been put through since the original Standard Oil company, with all its underlying subsidiary concerns, was formed. The success of the merger negotiations is attributed to E. L. Doheny, president of the Mexican Petroleum company. The other big companies which will join in the merger are the Associated Oil company, which is largely controlled by the Southern Pacific railroad, and the Union Oil company.

SHOW ACTIVITIES OF MR. VON PAPEN

London, Jan. 15.—Copies of correspondence seized from Captain Franz Von Papen, recalled German military attaché at Washington, when he reached Falmouth on his way to Germany, have been turned over to the American embassy for transmission to the state department.

The papers show that Captain Von Papen made frequent payments to persons charged with the responsibility for blowing up munition works and bridges in the United States.

The dossier furnished the American embassy discloses, among other things, the following facts:

That Captain Von Papen, through the firm of G. Amsinck & Company of New York, by checks drawn on the Riggs National bank of Washington, paid Werner Horn, alias Van Horne, who, it is said, attempted to blow up the Canadian Pacific bridge at St. Croix, Me., the sum of $700 a few days previous to the commission of the act; that through the same agency he paid Anton Kupferle, the German spy who committed suicide in Brixton prison here, the sum of $100 just prior to Kupferle's embarkation for his mission; and that Captain Von Papen kept the German consulate in Seattle regularly fed with large sums from the beginning of February, 1914, until a fortnight prior to the outrage occurring on May 30, when the last payment of $500 was made.

The documentary evidence revealing these facts constitutes an array totaling half a bushel basketful and outwitting in importance even the famous Archibald correspondence. The letters, bank books and check stubs show conclusively that whenever an outrage had been committed in the United States prior to that time extensive payments were made by Von Papen, through Amsinck & Company and others, to that particular locality. They also show significantly, as in the Horn case, that on the day prior to the payment of $700 Von Papen's special bank account was augmented by $2,000 from the German embassy. They show, too, a number of payments direct from Ambassador Von Bernstorff to Von Papen to what was termed "war intelligence work."

As an example of the size of the captain's financial operations, his bank book shows that in January of 1915 he received approximately $6,400 and paid out $5,000.

POLL SOLONS ON NEW BUILDINGS

Columbus, Jan. 15.—A majority of the members of the house of representatives are opposed to the purchase of additional real estate to contain offices to house state departments now in rented quarters, according to J. P. Maynard, clerk of the house, who has just completed a poll. The result of his investigation will be laid before the state building commission when it meets again Tuesday. A lofty shaft to replace the present dome on the statehouse is favored by the majority of those polled.

KISS COSTS $2,500

New York, Jan. 15.—For a kiss which was given to her against her will, and to pay for the distress of two nights in prison, Miss Lillian Conklin, a governess, was awarded $2,500 damages by a jury in the supreme court, where she brought suit against George R. Kaufman, a wealthy naming engineer, for $50,000 damages. Kaufman, who formerly lived in New York, where the girl declared he forced the kiss upon her, will receive the news of the verdict on a sick bed in Oakland, where he is said to be dangerously ill. He offered no defense.

MAGEE IS SOLD

New York, Jan. 15.—Harry Sparrow, business manager of the New York American League baseball club, announced that his club had purchased Lee Magee, former manager of the Brooklyn Federal league team. The price paid for Magee was not made public, but it is believed to have been about $15,000.

New York.—"One reason why I am so much interested in the outdoor movement that is sweeping over the country," said Mrs. Grace Gallatin Seton recently, "is because I believe that a nation can rise no higher than the level of its women and that it is best to begin early to make our women all that they should be to become the fitting wives and mothers of the race."

Mrs. Seton, wife of Ernest Thompson Seton and a member of the Council of the Woodcraft League, went on:

ship. After the crew had taken to the boats, the submarine came alongside the boat occupied by the captain of the Clan MacFarlane, and the submarine commander asked and received miscellaneous information regarding the ship and her crew.

The submarine was of the largest type and mounted two guns. Its commander showed great uneasiness, survivors say, while waiting for the steamship to sink. He finally accelerated her sinking by placing five shots below her water line.

The lifeboats battled eight days against mountainous seas, with the occupants on rations consisting of half a biscuit and a small cup of water twice daily. Six lifeboats had been tied together, but three broke away before help came and are believed to have been lost.

"Nowadays a boy in many instances is permitted to feel when he comes into young manhood that his mother's opinions no longer have the same value they did when he was a growing boy. He thinks she doesn't understand the important things of life. Later, when his reason begins to operate, he has to fight the inheritance of a secret sense of man's superiority or remain hopelessly fixed in his view of humanity as a whole.

"One of the important things in the education of a boy is first of all to let him know the physical aspect of the country he lives in, the out of doors world about him and the natural laws that govern everything in it.

"And how important it is that the girls know outdoor life too! Therefore, the training shall be fundamentally alike up to the point where it naturally separates, it is important that girls as well as boys shall have much of outdoor life in their younger years.

"A great deal of the value of outdoor life and work comes from the recovery of past knowledge of how to do things. It is a working out of the problem of development—a getting back to the source of creation in acquiring knowledge and efficiency in doing things.

"I see this outdoor movement as a vast picture. At the bottom is darkness, and ascending are layers of increasing light until the sun rays out its full glory above. Struggling, moving and growing all through these layers is humanity—souls in all stages of development. If you catch humanity young enough the chance of letting in the light is greater.

"If we are to develop in America distinctive schools of art, music and handicraft we must lay the foundations on those things which were distinctly American—woodcraft, outdoor life in general, the beautiful customs of the North American Indians and their art and picture writing. These we must first understand.

"Our woodcraft work is founded on the fundamental natural laws which were known to the North American Indians; hence many of their designs and symbols have been used in seeking to get back to the big constructive principles that govern human life. For instance, much symbolism is used. These symbols have their outer meaning for the passerby and their deeper spiritual significance for those who seek it.

"For our people to get the full benefit of the occasional respite from the workaday world that camping trips give them must know the wild by heart, and this can best be done by studying it when young; hence the importance of woodcraft work for boys and girls."

"THE OHIO LADY"

Hartman Theater, Columbus, Entire Week of January 24—Matinees Wednesday and Saturday—New Booth Tarkington-Julian Street Play Gets Start in Columbus.

One of the greatest and most interesting events in theatrical circles of Columbus, and of the entire state, in fact, will be the premier production at the Hartman on the evening of Monday, January 24, of "The Ohio Lady," the new Booth Tarkington-Julian Street play. After the opening the play will remain at the Hartman the entire week.

This event will bring to Columbus a number of people of importance in both the theatrical and newspaper world, who are interested in the first production this year of a genuine American play. It is a great honor to Ohio that for the heroine of this first American play of the year, an Ohio girl, a typical Ohio girl, has been characterized by Mr. Tarkington and Mr. Street, and that, too, a large part of the action of the play is laid in Ohio.

An interesting thing in connection with this work, considering its name and subject matter, is that of the producers, Klaw and Erlanger and George Tyler, two are Ohio men by birth and long residence. George Tyler was born in Chillicothe and spent some years in Columbus, where he was connected with the Columbus Times, of which his father was part owner and managing editor. Mr. Erlanger was born in Cleveland and started in that city the career which has made him at this time the most influential and important member of the theatrical world.

Mr. Tarkington is not an Ohioan, but he is next door to it, as a native of Indiana. His wife is an Ohio woman, a member of a socially prominent family at Dayton. He is one of our best known and most popular dramatists and novelists. His principal dramatic works are "The Man From Home," in which William Hodges starred with wonderful success for several years, and "Cameo Kirby," which he wrote with Harry Leon Wilson, and which also, curiously enough, had its premier in Columbus with Nat Goodwin in the leading part. Mr. Tarkington's first important novel was "The Gentleman From Indiana," which brought to the author immediate fame and popularity. His latest novel, published only six months ago, "The Turnout," has been called by many reviewers "the great American novel."

Julian Street is a well known newspaper and magazine writer. His book, "Abroad at Home," published recently, is the result of a trip taken from coast to coast by Mr. Street. Both Mr. Tarkington and Mr. Street present, of course, at the premier of "The Ohio Lady," will be together with Mr. Tyler, will be the heroine of the play will be impersonated by Mary Nash. Owing to the unusual popularity of this brilliant young American actress, her services are so in demand for Broadway productions that she is seldom seen outside New York. When the authors and producers of "The Ohio Lady" decided that Miss Nash was their ideal for the heroine she was under contract to Grace George, as one of the most important members of Miss George's repertoire company, now playing in New York. So determined were the "Ohio Lady" producers to secure Miss Nash for the part, that they postponed the production of the play until they could obtain her release from Miss George. The company which will be seen in support of Miss Nash is an exceptionally brilliant one.

Prices will be 25, 50, 75 cents, $1, $1.50 and $2 at night. For the matinees the prices will be 25, 50, 75 cents, $1 and $1.50. Mail orders for this important engagement are being received now, and when accompanied by a remittance will be promptly filled and returned.

LIGHT ON LIGHT.

What it Really is and How it Waves Affect Our Eyes.

How many of us could say what "light" is?

Could we explain why the gloom of the streets seems increased tenfold when we leave a well lighted room? And do we know why all of us suffer discomfort, if not actual pain, when from darkness we enter a brilliantly lighted place?

The discomfort on entering a lighted room after darkness is because the optic nerve, which receives light just as the drum of the ear receives sounds, is suddenly burdened with light rays before the pupil of the eye has had time to contract to receive them. The pupils dilate very much in the dark in order to admit every ray possible, and a dilated pupil cannot, without discomfort, suddenly receive an abundance of light rays.

When the pupils contract there is an automatic adjustment to the quantity of light. When we "peer" we are really only adjusting our pupils. Going from brilliant light to darkness, the pupils do not dilate instantly. They remain contracted and cannot for a time collect what light there is. So the darkness appears intensified.

Cats, owls and other animals see in the dark because they have the power of enlarging their broad pupils and collecting light which is invisible to us. Light itself is a fluid of luminous ether, which fills up the spaces in the air particles. It has an undulating vibratory movement, which strikes on the optic nerve, giving us the sensation of "light."—Pearson's Weekly.

FREE LECTURES AT CHERRY HILL

The meeting of the Parents-Teachers club at Cherry Hill this week was one of the best attended of the series, with more than a hundred present.

The first of a series of twelve lectures which will be given at intervals until the close of the term was delivered by Prof. G. F. Morgan, of Ohio University, Athens.

It proved to be a most interesting trip through the Canadian Rockies section, illustrated by the stereopticon.

These lectures will be free, although a voluntary offering will be taken to pay the small expense.

There was great interest manifested at the meeting. Mr. Reno, president, appointed on the program committee Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, Mr. O. S. Nelson, Mr. F. B. Toops.

TWO MORE SUITS AGAINST THE B. & O.

Two big damage suits against the B. & O. railroad, growing out of the Orient wreck, were filed in Madison county common pleas court this week.

The first is that of Grant Jones as administrator of Thornton D. Neff, deceased, in which $25,000 is asked for the death of Mr. Neff, who was instantly killed in the wreck.

The second suit is that of Phetna Neff in which she asks $15,000 damages for injuries sustained in the wreck. Fred Crabbe, C. R. Hornebeck and Crabbe & Johnson are attorneys for the plaintiff.

HANDSOME RESIDENCE PROPERTIES CHANGE

The two story residence property on Rawlings street owned by the Millikan estate and occupied by Mr. Houpp and daughter Miss Mable, was sold Friday to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Crawford, who will occupy it while building their new home on N. North street. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will give possession to Mrs. Lucy Ginn, who purchased some time ago, their present residence, the first of February, and move their household goods to the Rawlings street house although they will not begin housekeeping there until their return from Florida. They expect to leave for the south in February.

PRAISES PIANOS

Calisto R. Llamas, the gifted pianist who delighted the Washington audience with his brilliant playing, Friday night, used a Hobert M. Cable piano, which H. C. Summers & Son have sold for years, and was greatly pleased with the instrument.

"Only too often," said Mr. Llamas "the available piano is of an inferior grade, and it is an effort to use such an instrument, but if I could have such a piano as the Cable, I am sure the audience would be no more pleased than myself."

Inquiries were made as to whether or not the piano had been brought by the pianist, and elicited the information that it had been furnished by Messrs Summers of this city.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

B. F. Patridge, 27, farmer, Jefferson township, and Clara Pitzer, 20, Judge Craig.

Needs No Lightning Rod.

A building 9,000 feet above sea level should be protected by lightning rods, one thinks, but the astronomical observatory at Mount Etna has not and does not need such protection. The observatory is near the summit of the volcano, and the stream of vapor constantly rising from the crater acts as a natural conductor, draining the electricity out of the clouds, so that lightning is seldom seen there.

TWENTY-EIGHT ARE INDICTED

By Associated Press.
Youngstown, O., January 15.—Indictments were returned today against 26 persons, in a partial report made by the grand jury investigating the strike riots in East Youngstown.

EMELINE HALTED

By Associated Press.
New York, January 15.—Federal authorities detained Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, British suffrage leader, at Ellis Island today when she arrived on the steamship St. Paul, because she had served a sentence in a British prison.

She was similarly detained two years ago, but was quickly released. She says she has come to this country in the interest of the Serbian relief fund.

"MINE HOST" HAGLER FILLS ROLE ABLY

Mr. Howard Hagler entertained the Fair Board and friends to the number of twenty-four at an elegant turkey dinner at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday noon.

After a merry dinner hour Mr. E. E. Cockerill called for toasts, which were responded to informally by Chas. Allen, W. B. Rogers, Wm. Worthington, G. H. Hitchcock, H. W. Wilson and Frank M. Kennedy. Each speaker waxed more eloquent than the last in appreciation of Mr. Hagler's entertainment of the day and also his effective work in connection with the Board.

The popular director finally rose to protest against any more bouquets and stopped the speeches with pertinent humor.

WILD ALL THROUGH.

The American Bay Lynx is an Animal That Can't Be Tamed.

We call him the American wildcat, although he is of a different species from the wildcat of Europe. His real name is bay lynx, and he is closely associated with that other animal of America, the Canadian lynx. The European wildcat is really the ancestor of the domestic cat, but you can't domesticate the bay lynx of America. He is wild all the way through.

He gets his front name from his color, which is a yellowish brown or bay. His tail is short, which has given him another name—bobcat. Unlike most cats, he is a good swimmer, and his hind feet are partly webbed.

The bay lynx frequents mountain woodlands in the less settled portions of America, and sometimes he makes his presence dreaded by his raids on poultry. He is also a persistent robber of birds' nests, and he will eat both birds and eggs. He will also devour squirrels, rabbits, wild turkeys and anything that isn't too big for him to kill.

His appetite for animals has led people to fear him, although he will seldom attack human beings—only when he thinks he has to defend himself. He usually builds a nest of moss and leaves in a hollow tree.—Philadelphia North American.

SCIENCE OF NOSES.

In Size and Shape, It Is Said, Is Shown the Wearer's Character.

Nasography reveals the character, habits and inclinations of people by a simple inspection of noses. According to the system, the nose should be as long as possible, and this is a sign of merit, power and genius. Examples—Napoleon and Caesar, both of whom had large noses. A straight nose denotes a just, serious and energetic mind. The Roman nose a propensity for adventure and a wide nose with open nostrils is a mark of great sensuality. A cleft nose shows benevolence. It was the nose of St. Vincent de Paul.

The curved fleshy nose is a mark of domination and cruelty. Catherine de Medici and Elizabeth of England had noses of this kind. The curved, thin nose, on the contrary, is a mark of a brilliant mind, but vain and disposed to be ironical. It is the nose of a dreamer, a poet or a critic. If the line of the nose is re-entrante—that is, if the nose is turned up—it denotes that its owner has a weak mind, sometimes coarse, and generally playful, pleasant and frolicsome. A pale nose denotes egotism, envy, heartlessness. The quick, passionate, sanguine man has a strongly colored nose of uniform shade.—London Tit-Bits.

He That Loveth a Book.

He that loveth a book will never be without a faithful friend, a wholesome counselor, a cheerful companion, an effectual comforter. By study, by reading, by thinking, one may innocently divert and pleasantly entertain himself, as in all weathers, so in all fortunes.—Isaac Barrow.

GRAYSON ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT

White House Doctor Man of Ability and Tact.

MAKING RECORD AT HIS POST

Has Elevated Position to One of Dignity and Honor—Regulates President's Office Hours and Sometimes His Statements to Reporters—Valuable as Diplomat and Practitioner.

Washington.—It's a sweet little job, these days, being private and personal physician to the president of the United States. From a medical viewpoint it's not a particularly trying post, but the position embraces about fifty-seven other tasks, all calling for the tact, memory and general ability of a corporation counsel.

Slipping in and out of the White House, a little man with a keen, incisive eye and manner of speech, but withal an affability of manner which immediately attracts attention, can often be seen these days. His name is Cary T. Grayson, and his name carries with it the initials "U. S. N.," which means he is a member of the medical corps of the navy.

Grayson is the man who brought the position of presidential doctor out of obscurity and elevated it to a post of honor, dignity and efficiency in White House circles. Before Grayson came a White House doctor was a mysterious personage, little known and less cared about. Grayson combines this position with the one left vacant by the late Major Archibald Butt and fills both with complete satisfaction.

On the whole, the practice of medicine on the president of the United States is the least of Grayson's tasks. He's a sort of confidential family adviser to President Wilson, and he also regulates the president's office hours—and sometimes his statements to reporters. When the president is away from Washington, Grayson is oftentimes the sole connecting link between the head of the American nation and the representatives of the American press.

In more ways than one this black haired, pleasant faced, affable mannered, efficient man has attained distinction and a record during the time Woodrow Wilson has occupied the White House. He is usually spoken of as "Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N.," the president's personal physician, but that's merely the correspondents' method of repaying in formality the informal, gracious kindnesses of the president's doctor.

In size Grayson is a small man, but that doesn't apply to his ability. He has a long, straight nose, jet black hair and deep set eyes that twinkle with humorous appreciation half the time. Sometimes they don't twinkle, but that's when Grayson is "on the road" with his distinguished patient, and the responsibility of his position at such a time is apt to take the twinkle from any one's eyes.

The president is an indefatigable worker, and like all men of his temperament he has the habit of neglecting his personal health when involved in a deep and delicate problem. Grayson, however, is always hovering in the background, guarding him against overwork, driving him forth to the golf links or for an automobile ride, urging plenty of sleep, a careful diet and all the other details necessary to a president's health.

These are a part of his duties when the president is at home. Grayson's duties at such times become comparatively light, and he is enabled to take up his other work at the Naval hospital at Washington, where he has a regular quota of patients who demand his attention so long as he remains in the city.

But when the president takes to his private car for a swift whirl to New York, to Cornish or elsewhere, Grayson suddenly stands forth as the czar of the executive's private car. Grayson is strong on the point of exercise. He insists that the president take exercise at any and all times, and the president, fortunately, when the matter is brought to his attention, is always willing to exercise.

LITERARY FORGERIES.

Stuff With Which Vrain-Lucas Duped An Aged Scientist.

The most remarkable literary forgery on record was perpetrated in 1870 on Michael Chasles, a French scientist of European reputation. Chasles, who was in his dotage, purchased within a few years from one Vrain-Lucas no fewer than 27,000 autographs. A. M. Broadley tells the story in his "Chats on Autographs."

"Beginning with a supposed correspondence between the youthful Newton and Pascal, Vrain-Lucas proceeded to fabricate letters of Rabelais, Montesquieu and La Bruyere. Before he had finished M. Chasles became the possessor of letters in French, and written on paper made in France, of Julius Caesar, Cleopatra, Mary Magdalene and even of Lazarus after his resurrection."

Vrain-Lucas was sentenced to two years' imprisonment, and among other forged manuscripts from his pen there were produced in court letters from Alexander the Great, Herod, Pompey, Judas Iscariot, Sappho, Pontius Pilate and Joan of Arc.

Battlecry of the Cat.

The piercing wavery of the cat in the night startles and exasperates us beyond all bearing—not by its loudness, but by a certain vicious, weird, half terrifying, half infuriating note in it that makes us spring to arms with the bootlace or other substitute for the boomerang, as the warwhoop of our tribal enemies did a century or centuries ago, says Dr. Woods Hutchinson.

One of Mark Twain's wise old frontiersmen had caught this note when he explained to the tenderfoot that animal speech had rules of composition and grammar, just like human speech, and that "the reason a cat riles ye so ain't on account of the noise she makes, but on account of the sickening bad grammar she uses." And he was right, for the grammar of scarp lifting and the whole alphabet of battle, murder and sudden death tingles and screams in the rasping cry.

The Weather Changeth Not. The oldest weather diary known to be in existence was kept by a Lincolnshire parson, William Merle, close on 600 years ago. From 1337 to 1344 he wrote it up, often day by day, in Latin, and his manuscript, being on vellum, was somehow preserved and is now in the Bodleian. Merle did not trouble himself with the popular lore about "skye influences," but stuck to an accurate record of fact, in the spirit at least of the modern meteorologists. And from his jottings it seems that he had pretty much the same kind of weather to deal with as folks in his parish of Friby experience now. Contrary to theory, the changes of six centuries have not reduced the number of wet days in the year.—London Chronicle.
